

Klamath Emergency Communications District

9-1-1

The Klamath 9-1-1 training program is phased approach, providing the candidate the best opportunity to obtain the required knowledge, skills and certifications to launch their career in public safety call taking and dispatching. A trained call taker may advance in their career by promoting to dispatcher (telecommunications specialist)

of weeks	Phase	Description	Hourly Wage
1	Phase I	Foundational Knowledge (Geography, dispatched agencies, equipment used, codes and alphabet, organizational etc.)	$11.92
2.5	Phase II	Foundational Skill (further depth in foundational knowledge adding the development of skills to use the associated tools and interact with callers and responders)	$11.92
4	Phase III	On the Job (training is plugged in with a trainer, receiving coaching and correction while skills are being developed)	$15.90
2.5	Phase IV	On the Job Supervised (trainee is working calls by themselves, while being supervised by their trainer)	$15.90
3	Academy	Two week Dispatch academy and three day Emergency Medical Dispatch training at the DPSST in Salem	based upon scheduling restrictions typically $15.90
	Solo Status	Trainee has completed their Call Taker training and will perform on their own until they reach the time requirement to apply for their certification	$16.73

Effective July 1st, 2015

This District is an Equal Opportunity Provider.”