

Klamath Emergency Communications District

The Klamath 9-1-1 training program is phased approach, providing the candidate the best opportunity to obtain the required knowledge, skills and certifications to launch their career in public safety call taking and dispatching.

of weeks	Phase	Description	Hourly Wage
1	Phase I	Foundational Knowledge (Geography, dispatched agencies, equipment used, codes and alphabet, organizational etc.)	$13.46
2.5	Phase II	Foundational Skill (further depth in foundational knowledge adding the development of skills to use the associated tools and interact with callers and responders)	$13.46
6	Phase III	On the Job (training is plugged in with a trainer, receiving coaching and correction while skills are being developed)	$17.94
4	Phase IV	On the Job Supervised (trainee is working calls by themselves, while being supervised by their trainer)	$17.94
3	Academy	Two week Dispatch academy and three day Emergency Medical Dispatch training at the DPSST in Salem	based upon scheduling restrictions typically $17.94
	Solo Status	Trainee has completed their Telecomm training and will perform on their own until they reach the time requirement to apply for their certification	$18.89

Effective July 1, 2017

This District is an Equal Opportunity Provider."